Moscow, August 26.

WE have Advice that Vice-Admiral Bredal, with a Squadron of Seven large Ships of War and Nine Frigats, coming from Archangel and Kola, has passed the Sound; and it is probable that by this Time he has joined the other Russian Squadron in the Baltick.

From the General Quarters in Bavaria near Ober Altach, Sept. 12.

Lieutenant Colonel Trenck, having got Possession of Vichtach, was detached by Felt Marshal Khevenhuller to go to Cham, and endeavour to make himself Master of it, as being one of the best Towns in Bavaria. The aforesaid Gentleman having marched immediately, went thither to summon the Commandant of the Place Colonel Count Kunigl, who was there with a Battalion of Bavarians, and gave him to understand, That being comprehended in the Capitulation of Lintz, he ought to quit the Town, and go into the open Country of the Palatinate, conformably to the said Capitulation; which he refusing, Count Khevenhuller wrote him a Letter; after which, he demanded some Time to reflect upon it, which Baron Trenck granted him. In the mean time two Men of Baron Trenck's Detachment having advanced too near the Town, they fired at them, and wounded one dangerously, having shot him through the Body. The Besiegers having committed this first Hostility, Baron Trenck demanded Satisfaction for it: To which Colonel Kunigl having answered, That it had been done without his Knowledge, and contrary to his Orders, Trenck insisted upon a Cathegorical Answer, whether he would evacuate the Place or not: Which the other having refused, Trenck made some Motions as if he intended to go away; which occasioned great Joy in the Town, and immediately Musick was heard from all their Towers. In the mean while Lieutenant Colonel Trenck went to another Side of the Town, and fell into the Suburbs, where indeed they fired briskly on him, but without discouraging him. Whilst he was employed in setting Fire to the Suburbs, and that they were firing at him from all Sides of the Town, one of those Houses catched Fire; which Lieutenant Colonel Trenck perceiving, he gave Orders to fire against this House, as well with Muskets as small Field Pieces, in order to drive away those who were endeavouring to put it out. The Wind, in a short Time, increased the Flames to so great a Degree, that the whole Town was quickly reduced to Ashes, little more than one Church being left. The Commandant not being able to walk, having the Gout, remained in the Town with his Grenadiers, but the rest of the Garrison were gone out on the opposite Side. But as soon as Lieutenant Colonel Trenck was informed of it, he pursued them, and made them an Offer of Pardon; which they accepted of with Joy, having directly laid down their Arms, and entreated, as a Favour, to be received into the Queen of Hungary's Service, having excused themselves for their Ignorance about the Capitulation of Lintz, some of their Officers having told them, that it was no longer in Force. With this Battalion they took five Pair of Colours, and found in the Town Eleven Pieces of Cannon. The Pandours got an immense Booty by the taking of this Place, the Inhabitants of all the adjacent Country having lodged their Effects in it for Security.

Naples, September 4. N. S. This Court, in Consequence of the late Suspicion of an Insurrection in this City, in order to please the lower Sort of People, has caused a Reduction on the Price of Flower, and the Suppressing of the Duties on several Sorts of Eatables: They are however carrying on Processes against many suspected People, and are repairing and putting in Order the Fortifications of the Castles for all Events.

Leghorn, September 7. On the 4th ſailed from this Port for Villa Franca, Commodore Martin, with the Squadron under his Command, to join Admiral Matthews, having left in this Port Captain Osborne, with three of His Britannick Majeſty's Ships, for the Aſſiſtance of the Britiſh Factory eſtabliſhed at this Place.

Rome, September 8. On the 3d the Governor of Orbitello arrived here privately; and after a long Conference with Cardinal Aquaviva, returned immediately to that Place. On the 4th Count Mahoni, General of Horſe in the Service of the King of Naples, who arrived here lately from the Army in the Romagna, ſet out from hence for Naples. In the laſt Week two Battalions of the King of Naples's Troops paſſed by Viterbo, on their March to reinforce the Garriſon of the Preſidii. The Chevaliers Cantagalli and Roncalli had an Audience of the Pope, as Deputies of the City of Foligno, to repreſent the Hardſhip to which that Publick was expoſed, by the Supply of Forrages to the Spaniſh Army; requiring, at the ſame Time, Relief to ſupport ſo burthenſome an Expence. On the 3d a Congregation of Eight Cardinals was thereupon ſummoned before the Pope to conſult on this Head, as well as concerning the Supply of 2000 Rubbi of Corn required by the Spaniards, which was abſolutely refuſed on Account of the Scarcity in the Country; and on the 4th a Courier was diſpatched by the Secretary of State to the Court of Spain, with the Pope's ſerious Repreſentations, for obtaining a ſpeedy Removal of the Spaniſh Troops from the Eccleſiaſtical State.

Genoa, September 12. N. S. This Morning arrived the uſual French Courier from Paris, who brings Advice, that Don Phillip, with Part of his Army, were at Chambery, where they detained him one Day, and examined all his Letters for the Court of Turin.

Turin, September 16. N. S. This Court has received Advice from Bologna, as well as from Rome, that the Spaniſh Army was preparing to return into the Romagna, and drawing nearer the Panaro, in order to which Commiſſaries had been already ſent to ſeveral Parts, for providing Subſiſtance for them. Proper Orders have been ſent by this Court to Count d'Apremont, to attend Marſhal Traun at Buonporto near Modena, and to concert with him what may be neceſſary for oppoſing any Attempt the Spaniards might make for paſſing the Panaro, for which the 14 Battalions and the four Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons, which the King of Sardinia has left in Lombardy, join'd to the Troops of the Queen of Hungary, that amount to at leaſt 12000 Men, including the Croatians, are thought to be fully ſufficient, eſpecially in this Seaſon of the Year. The Infant Don Phillip was expected the 11th at Chambery with his whole Retinue. The Spaniſh Troops are in the Valleys of Savoy and Tarentaiſe, where they commit very great Diſorders.

Florence, September 16. On the 7th M. del Borgo, Knight of the Order of St. Stephen, was, by Order of the Regency, arreſted at Piſa, and conducted to the Fortreſs of Volterra, for talking diſreſpectfully of this Government. Marſhal Traun, with the Auſtrian Troops, continues in the Modaneſe, Mirandola, and at Buon Porto. Laſt Week the Theatre at Siena was by Accident burnt down.

Vienna, September 19. N. S. Count Eſterhaſi has Orders to repair forthwith from the Army to the Court of Dreſden. His Royal Highneſs the Great Duke was on the 15th Inſtant at Beraun. It is hoped that the Junction with Count Khevenhuller will be made on the 25th Inſtant, at or about Furth, between Chamb and Waldmunchen.

Hague, Oct. 2. On the 22d paſt M. Maillebois is ſaid to have been at Plana, and the Great Duke at Hayd, whilſt Khevenhuller lays at Waldmunchen, and Count Saxe was advancing round by Egra to gain the Elbe and Moldau, and to try to throw a large Convoy of Proviſions, which have been got together at Prina, into Prague. The young Duke of Deux Ponts, the Duke de Briſac, and M. Beauveau, have found Means to ſave themſelves with Two hundred and fifty Horſe, under Favour of a Sally made by 10,000 Men from the Town.

Whitehall, September 25.

This Morning an Expreſs arrived from Holland, with Advice, that the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret, who embarked on board the Packet Boat at Harwich on Monday laſt, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, landed at Helvoetſluys on Thurſday laſt, and was preparing to proceed for the Hague.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 24, 1742.

Notice is hereby given, that a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tueſday the 9th Day of November next, at Juſtice-hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

General Poſt Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Perſons, thro' Ignorance or Careleſneſs, frequently put Letters into the General Poſt Offices, and the Receiving Houſes both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the ſame Time the Poſtage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the ſaid Offices with Money and Rings incloſed, and in Fraud of his Majeſty's Revenue, divers Perſons preſume to ſend Letters with falſe and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumſtances aforeſaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Uſage of this Office paid the Foreign Poſtage, and are required by the Act of Parliament ſo to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the ſame are firſt put in.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General.
